Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 5

Don't forget the torch light procession Monday night by the white men. Get your torch light or transparency ready, it cannot cost you much, and you will have the pleasure of showing your colors to the many people present. Which will you follow, the ladies, the white man and the music and hear two of North Carolina's ablest speakers, or the negroes and a few white men to hear a man speak who made in substance, the following absurd utterance in an iterview in Washington a few days ago: "The President has no idea of sending federal troops to North Carolina, the report of which in so many democratic papers is baseless."

The wire for the Brokaw telephone line has been put up. The phone will be put in next week.

The Archdale band passed through this morning returning from the Winston tobacco fair.

A negro strayed into Ingrams' market night before last when "Bro. Mike," a white republican said to him, the democrats are going to sweep you fellows off the face of the earth next week. Well, said the negro, dar's one consolation, if dey do, some of dis low-down sorry white trash will go wif us. What do you mean? said Mike very quickly, aren't you drunk? No, dat's jes what I believe. Now Bro. Mikes favorite song is: "Now I'm sorry that I spoke."

Several of our young people attended the foot-ball game at Guilford College Tuesday.

The services at the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be preliminary to a series of services beginning on the following Sunday to be conducted by the Rev. Wm. Black, the Presbyterian evangelist, Mr. Pool, the "Gospel Singer," will come on next Thursday to arrange for the singing. This will be so arranged as not to conflict with Woody Brothers' class.

The regular hour for worship at the M. E. Church will be taken up by the children's exercises. The usual services, morning and evening, at the other churches unless further announced.

Messrs. N. N. and H. A. Woody, first tenor and base singers of the Woody Brothers' Convention and Concert Company, of Chicago, who are organizing a singing school here will sing in the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning, and at the M. E. Church tomorrow night.

From the way sportsmen are bringing in the game it must be very plentiful in this section this season. Mr. Carrington and wife, of Washington, who are stopping at Jarrell's, are daily bringing in a large number of quail and hares. Yesterday "Bud" Jordan went out by himself and without a dog and returned with nine squirrels. "Jim" Little came in yesterday morning with five large opossums, and after eating breakfast went out and bagged twenty-five quail. "Jim's" daily average a half a day's hunt is over that number.

STATEMENT NOT CONFIRMED

That Troops Will Stop in Wilmington Tuesday.

OFFICIAL MEN PLEAD IGNORANCE

General Corbin Emphatically Denies the Statement—News From Washington City.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5.—According to the statistics given out by the War Department, under the command of General Young, starts the movement from Camp Meade for the South today. These troops will be sent to the winter camps at Augusta and Athens, Georgia. It is thought that after the troops reach the South General Young will continue in command of the Second Corps for some time, as General Lawton will go to Cuba to arrange for the camping of his corps there.

General Lee is said to be prepared to leave for the South at very short notice, and at the War Department it is not thought that he will be delayed in starting for Savannah beyond Wednesday next. General Lee was in Alexandria Thursday afternoon, but did not come over to Washington. The officials seem anxious that the General should start for Savannah by the middle of the coming week in order that certain matters pertaining to the movement of the troops for Cuba may be arranged.

At the War Department Gen. Corbin said yesterday that no advices had been received from General Boynton, who is in command at Knoxville, relative to the rioting among the members of the Sixth Virginia (colored) Volunteers. The belief at the department is that the trouble is over, and will not be renewed.

Officials at the War Department yesterday would not confirm the statement coming from Wilmington, North Carolina, to the effect that United States regulars will stop over there Tuesday, while enroute to Charleston, South Carolina. The officials said that no advices of such a movement had been at the department here. At the White House it was stated by one of the officials that President McKinley is, and has been opposed to use of Federal troops in North Carolina, not deeming the situation such as would warrant their presence in the State.

General Corbin was seen last night and he denied emphatically the statement that troops would be sent to Wilmington, or would stop over enroute to Wilmington. Not an official at the war department could be found who would admit the truth of the rumor yesterday. At both congressional headquarters last night it was stated that the situation was easing up considerably, and it was thought the withdrawal of the local ticket in Wilmington would prevent a serious clash o Tuesday.

Virginia and South Carolina people coming to Washington are more interested in the North Carolina outcome than they are in the elections in their own states. A gentleman for the former state said that the elections were practically certain in Virginia to go democratic, excepting in the Ninth and Tenth districts, so the people were more interested in the contest their neighbors are waging against such heavy odds.

Senator Thomas Platt, of New York, was among the prominent visitors to Washington yesterday. He took a flying trip for the purpose of attending to some business before the departments. The Senator called at the white house and paid his respects to President McKinley, whom he bolstered up with the idea that Roosevelt's election is absolutely certain. The Senator appeared to be bubbling over with confidence, and told many whom he met that the republican state and legislative tickets in New York state will be elected. The Senator does not think the republicans will lose more than two are three of the congressional districts at the most.

W. A. Post, General Superintendent of the Newport News Ship building and Dry Dock Company, after spending several days in Washington on business with the Navy Department, relative to the naval work going on at the shipyard, left the city Thursday night for home. It is said that Mr. Post will meet Mr. Collis P. Huntington in Newport News, and that an important conference will be held, which will result in a big deal which may be of great benefit to Newport News. It is said that Mr. Post will leave shortly for Savannah on the La Grande Duchesse, which was built at Newport News Ship yard, at a cost of $1,000,000, and which has been accepted by the Plant Line.

Dr. Cary and wife, left Washington yesterday morning over the Southern Railway for Goldsboro, N.C. They will stop over in Greensboro for a day or two. The Dr. is a son of Hon. Shepherd Gray, who was one of Maine's Democratic Congressmen before the civil war. They will spend the winter in the State for the benefit of Mrs. Cary's health, returning to Maine in the Spring.

SIMMONS TO PRITCHARD.

The Senator Dodges All The Questions Asked Him.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4, 1898.

Hon. J. C. Pritchard, Marshalls, N.C.

Dear Sir—I have been shown an open letter from you addressed to me, bearing date Nov. 2nd, which purports to answer an open letter written by me to you under date of Oct. 25, 1898, propounding questions as to the extent of negro rule and negro office seeking and holding in North Carolina.

I asked you in my letter to answer—admitting or deny, thirty-four questions which I propounded to you. In your reply you make no attempt whatever to answer a single solitary one of these thirty-four questions, either seperately or collectively, thereby practically admitting the truth of everyone of the assertions contained in these questions.

You refuse to answer specificially or directly any of my questions with reference to negro domination and office holding in eastern North Carolina, because you could not answer them truthfully without convicting your party of the crime of negroizing the east. Sending me a list of the campaign falsehoods which make up the so-called "Populist Hand Book of facts" and asking me "Do you deny" this and that falsehood invented by mendacious local politicians, is no tan answer to the pertinent questions to which you were asked to reply, and no one knows this better than yourself. You cannot dodge the issue this way and your attempt to dodge will everywhere be taken as a plea of "nole contendere."

You ought to know, and you do know, if you have read the newspapers, that everyone of these statements that democrats have elevated negroes to office over white men, which you copy in your letter, has been investigated and shown to be false by the affidavits of the best men in North Carolina, in many instances by the testimony of honest populists and white republicans So complete and convincing has been the testimony to this effect, that fusion orators have been forced to abandon the stale calumnies which you seek to resurrect by your questions.

To one and all of your questions that seek to show that the democratic party is a negro party, the sufficient answer is, that if it is the negro party, why is it that every one of the 115,000 negro voters in the State cast their ballots against the democratic party. Why do you tell the negroes that it is both their interest and their duty to vote the republican ticket, and why is it that negro leaders threaten to lynch any degro who desires to vote the democratic ticket, and why is it that negro women pass resolutions of ostracism against negroes who vote the democratic ticket?"

While this is a sufficient and complete answer to your inquiries, I will be glad and willing to unswer seriatim, over my own signature, any questions that may be propounded by you, on the very day that you answer the questions in my letter of October 25th.

I fully appreciate the awkward dilemma you are placed in by my questions. I foresaw, and you no doubt saw, if you answered "YES" to them, it would be a confession of the Democratic bill of indictment against you and your party. If you answered them "NO," that at least ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND voters living in that section of the State where the facts of negroization by your party have transpired before their very eyes, would know your statement to be untrue, and if you did not answer at all, it would be as bad as an open confession. Confronted by this dilemma, you seek to elude the issue by ignoring my questions altogether, and asking me others. Now you have my answer to your questions, let the people have a direct answer from you to my questions. Yours truly.

F. M. Simmons.

They Were Surprised.

A gentleman from the country came in today and reported that Bradshaw and Douglas went out to Piney Grove schoolhouse to instruct a crowd of the faithful in ways political. John Kennett heard of it and appeared on the scene asking a division of time. It was at first refused, but they finally allowed him twenty-five minutes, but refused him a chance to reply. Which side, in this campaign, is afraid or ashamed of the issues?

HORRIBLE MINE DISASTER

SEVEN MEN INSTANTLY KILLED.

Three Others Were Fatally Injured. Four of Those Killed Bore the Name of Michael.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 5—A dreadful accident in which seven souls were instantly hurled into eternity and three men were fatally injured, occurred this morning at Exeter Colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company.

The seven men killed were Michael Smith, Andrew Fincke, Michael Podesabanny, Michael Arazuke, Joseph Calock, Michael Waslowski and Joseph Andrewaski.

Those fatally injured are: William Pukas, Joseph Winslow and Paul Leckswones.

The men were descending to their work on a carriage when loaded cars ran from the drift into the shaft and came down upon them. Their bodies are horribly mangled.

FAIR AT REIDSVILLE.

Next Wednesday and Thursday—Democrats Will Win.

Special to the Telegram.

Reidsville, Nov. 5.—The New York Racket Fair to be held here next Wednesday and Thursday promises to be a great success. The indications being that the largest crowds ever seen in Reidsville will be in attendance. One of the special features for Thursday will be the trotting and pacing and bicycle races. Some of the most celebrated trotting and pacing horses in the South will be entered, most of the contestants, however, being from the Alamance Stock Farm and from the Walton Stock Farm of Virginia. The races will be the best ever held here. The track has been put in perfect condition.

Rockingham county will go democratic by two or three hundred majority. Kitchin's majority will be two hundred.

WILL BE SHORT.

American Reply to the Spanish Commissioners.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Nov. 5.—It is expected that the American reply to the Spaniards will be brief, insisting upon the right of effective conquest. The Spanish will next insist upon a discussion of cession as a sale and not as indemnity. Germany is prepared to offer two hundred million dollars, and afterwards there will be a fight over the indemnity.

Premier Sagasta will remain in power while the negotiations last. There is reason to prolong the negotiations, but no rupture is probable.

THE DESPUTE ENDED.

Definite Announcement of the Fashoda Evacuation.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 5.—Definite announcements of the evacuation of Fashoda revealed the essence, but does not end the Anglo-French tension. The two governments are now ready to proceed with negotiations concerning Bahr el Ghazel, which is sure to be long and intricate, but which will probably have a pacific outcome. The peril of them is in the accumulated resentment of each nation against the other, which the Fashoda dispute revealed and concentrated.

A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. M. C. Johnson, of Richmond, Ind. Died Here Yesterday.

Mrs. M. C. Johnson died yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Lancaster on South Elm street. She was a victim of consumption and came to Greensboro about three weeks ago for her health, but grew gradually worse and late yesterday afternoon, breathed her last. She formerly lived in Greedsboro and had relatives here. She was about 35 years old. The funeral will be preached tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock by Rev. Joseph Potts, of the Friends church and the remains interred in Rehobeth cemetery. Mr. Johnson will arrive from Richmond tonight to accompany the remains to their last resting place.

Nicaraguan Commission Report.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 5—The Nicaraguan canal commission, appointed by the president, have their work almost completed and will report this month. They consider the project practicable and believe the expenses will probably be something less than one hundred and twenty-five millions. The report will be unanimous and will probably recommend construction by the United States.

MAKES IT NO BETTER.

Explanation as to Bradshaw's Exit Act.

A reporter of the Telegram wrote in yesterday's paper that Mr. G. Sam Bradshaw was in the court room while Kennett was speaking, but at the close of his speech, Bradshaw "sheepishly made his exit," knowing that his opponent, Wilson, would speak next. The reporter says that when Wilson got up and Bradshaw was called for some one remarked to him (the reporter) that Bradshaw was there a few minutes before and had just gone out.

That is how it happened. We have no desire in the world to do Mr. Bradshaw an injustice. Certainly it is there is no necessity for telling a falsehood on him. He has been very lightly dealt with, and should be eternally grateful if he escapes by being called "sheepish" only.

But as we started out to say, Mr. Bradshaw was, as a matter of fact, in High Point that night, and arrived in this city about the time the speaking was over. As yet, however, we have heard no excuse for his not accepting the challenge of the democratic candidate.

STAMEY & GRISSOM.

Change in the Firm Name to Grissom & Fordham.

In order that I may give my undivided attention to my profession, I have sold my interest in the above-named firm to Mr. C. C. Fordham, of Raleigh, who has already taken charge of the business. I have known Mr. Fordham for years as being a christian gentleman in every sense of that term. He took not only the highest grade in his class before the North Carolina Board of Pharmacy, but the highest grade ever taken by any man before the board up to that time.

Mr. Fordham has been with Mr. Henry T. Hicks, of Raleigh, for some time, and received not only flattering offers to remain with that gentleman, but was offered large salaries by others of Raleigh. These facts are known to the writer of his own personal knowledge and have not been obtained from Mr. Fordham himself,

It is with feelings of regret that I dissolve my relationship with Mr. Grissom. They have been of the most pleasant nature, but as I have said I want to give my time to my profession. I introduce to the friends of the drug store and the public generally the new firm, and bespeak for them the patronage and good will of all concerned. Very Respectfully,

E. L. Stamey.

PICK-POCKETS IN BURLINGTON.

A Wallet Containing $1,338.00 stolen This Morning.

Chief of Police Rees received a telegram at noon today from a gentleman at Burlington saying, that a black wallet containing about $38 in cash, and $1,300 in valuable papers, had been picked from his pocket in Burlington today. The despatch asked that several fakirs who came up from Burlington on the noon train be searched, but when the message was received the train had arrived and the fakirs scattered. The conductor said he could point out some of them who gave him trouble on the train, but none of them could be seen. Pick-pockets were plentiful in Burlington this morning and four were arrested before the noon train coming this way, passed there.

MARIA TERESA SUNK AGAIN.

Reported Today by the Charleston Quarantine Officer.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Charleston, Nov. 5.—The quarantine officer at this place this morning reported the sinking of the Spanish cruiser Maria Teresa. The crew is now at his station. She was enroute under her own steam from Santiago to Norfolk to be docked and repaired.

The tug Merritt, which was towing the Teresa, has arrived and reports that she sunk on the morning of the 1st inst., off the Bahama group. The crew was taken aboard the convoy vessel and all were saved. Nothing could be done to keep her from sinking.

Meeting Closes Tomorrow.

The protracted which has been conducted for the past two weeks, in the new Methodist church at Proximity, by the pastor. Rev. G. T. Rowe, assisted by Rev. W. L. Grissom, will close at the eleven o'clock service tomorrow. The revival has been one of unusual interest, more then fifty people having professed religion during its progress. Rev. Mr. Grissom has been preaching some forcible sermons and has also done much good among the members of the church. He will preach a special sermon to converts at the eleven o'clock service tomorrow, after which the ordinance of Baptism will be administered and candidates received into the church.

HOLTON'S LITTLENESS.

The low, cowardly stoop of Republican Chairman Holton, in having a bench warrant issued for Hon. W. H. Kitchin and others was a piece of meanness and littleness of which many of his friends, even, thought he was incapable. After examining several witnesses, and without any argument of counsel, Justice Montgomery dismissed the warrant and discharged the defendants. There was not a shadow of a case against them.

It is believed by many that the negro, Steptoe, was employed by the fusionists to thus swear against Captain Kitchin, Claude Kitchin and others in order to make it appear that there is need for troops here to prevent and suppress democratic intimidation.

This is cowardly business. It is extremely ugly business. It is exceedingly small business, and Chairman Holton is a mighty small man. The very idea of attempting to convict such men as Captain Kitchin and those charged with him of breaking into a negro cabin with the purpose of intimidating a negro politician, and that too, on the unsupported testimony of said negro! Bah!

AN OPEN LETTER.

From Rev. A. J. Parker, of South Mills, N. C.

The following article was sent to the North Carolina Christian Advocate, but Dr. Crawford refused to let it be published. It appeared in the Morning Post of yesterday, and we reproduce it from that paper:

Dear Bro. Ivey:

Please publish the following in the Advocate:

Just after Dr. Crowel resigned the presidency of Trinity College and the board of trustees was casting about for his successor, I held an educational mass meeting at Zion church, on Meherrin circuit.

Dr. L. W. Crawford, then financial agent of Trinity College, and Rev. J. M. Rhodes, president of Littleton Female College, were the speakers. Both made strong speeches in favor of Christian education.

During Bro. Crawford's stay he and I had several conversations about Trinity College and other matters pertaining to the welfare of the church.

Among other things, Bro. Crawford said, "The college ought to declare itself on this question, and come out boldly and take its stand against State aid." I said "Bro. Crawford, you are its financial agent, why don't you do it?" To this he replied: "I am not at the head of the institution, and cannot tell what course its next president will pursue. Were I president I would come out openly as the Baptists have done and give the University crowd to understand that we are not to be trifled with." I wonder what change has come over him? I would be glad for him to tell us how he reconciles the statements on that occasion with his present attitude toward Trinity College and its management?

I most heartily commend you for the firm stand you have taken for Trinity College. You can rest assured that your brethren of the North Carolina Conference will stand by you. The criticisms of your enemies will fall harmlessly at your feet.

Fraternally,
A. J. Parker,

BEAUTIFUL JIM KEY.

Benefit of the Library Fund of the Graded Schools of Greensboro.

The committee have secured "Beautiful Jim Key," the celebrated educated horse, that made such a sensation at the Raleigh Fair, and is this week the leading attraction at the Winston-Salem Fair, to give a series of performances on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week at the Academy of Music.

The Winston papers have wonderful accounts of this remarkable animal, and their mayor, leading ministers and business men say is the greatest wonder ever seen in their city.

We have been reading extensive accounts in the eastern papers for some time about "Beautiful Jim Key," and well-known papers, like the New York Herald, Cincinnati Commercial and others, have devoted an entire page in describing his wonderful feats.

Arrangements have been made for special matinees for the scholars of the Graded Schools and the young ladies of the State Normal and Greensboro Female Colleges. Superintendent Grimsly, of the schools, says he will endeavor to have every child in the school attend, as it will be a grand object lesson to them what patience and kindness will accomplish.

President Peacock, of the G. F. College, is very anxious to have all the young ladies in his college attend, as he says he has heard this astonishing performance spoken of in the most creditable manner. President McIver, of the State Normal, saw this beautiful and educated horse at Raleigh, and was so deeply interested in the interesting and surprising exhibition of intelligence, that he arranged with the manager of "Beautiful Jim Key" to bring him to Greensboro. He said: "I want every young lady in our college, and every man, woman and child in our city to see this wonderful performance. I put the horse through a very careful examination, asking him various questions myself in arithmetic and other things, and he answered correctly every time. One question I asked him was: 'Jim, how many are 9 x 7 x 3 - 4?' He went to his rack and got the number 15 from among the many there.

During the intermission Prof. Avery, the celebrated ventriloquist, with his two humorous puppets, Mike and Dennis, will keep every one laughing.

Laurinburg Business Men.

Laurinburg, N. C., Nov. 4.—The fight for white supremacy grows hotter every day. Republicanism in old Richmond will come to an end on Monday night, and Tuesday will usher in a clean, Democratic, white man's government. We've got 'em beat and the Rads know it. White men are working with a vengeance day and night. The places of business have all agreed to close their places of business Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock and not open again until county and State will be Democratic, which will be Wednesday morning.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the desease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and finds that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by, C. E. COLONEL BOYD

Meets a Chilling Frost at Statesville Wednesday.

Col. Jas. E. Boyd, Assistant Attorney General of the United States, spoke to the faithful at the court house Wednesday, and met a chilly frost. The largest number of auditors present at any one time was about 100, nearly one-half negroes and one-third Democrats. The size of the audience was not at all complimentary to the colonel, who is a man of ability and a good talker, but he blazed away just the same. His speech was largely a discussion of national issues in which the administration and the President were lauded. In regard to State matters he followed the usual line of Republican argument. He said the President would not send troops to North Carolina, as he believes in government by ballots and not by bullets.

More Incendiary Speech.

The sable son of Ham, Richard Biggs, republican nominee for county commissioner—the running mate of Benjamin Franklyn King and John Worthington Cooper, senior, white—in a crowd of other ebony hued skins, used this bold, vicious, vile speech to two reputable and law-abiding white men who mistook a religious gathering for a political speaking at St. Matthews colored church, last week. The white men were Messrs. J. R. Williford and Wiley Hughes. Here is the insult:

"If we, the negroes, are elected, we will use the white folks like the white folks used the negroes And if we, the negroes, don't get in power the March winds will blow down the chimneys. We intend to make white men work under negro road overseers, and put them in mud and water up to their knees. We intend to roll them up in blankets."—Windsor Ledger.

Colored Churches.

There will be preaching at Bethel A. M. E. Church tomorrow as follows: 11 a. m. by Rev. J. A. Wright, of Va; 3 p. m. by Rev. W. J. Rankin, of Aberdeen; 7:30 p. m. by Rev. H. C. Mabry, D. D., of Chadbourn. All are invited.

P. J. Jordan, Pastor.

Providence Baptist Church, Rev. N. A. Marriott, pastor: Bible School at 9:30 a. m. Baptizing at 11 a. m. Communion will be administered and the hand of fellowship extended to the candidates at 3 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. by the pastor. All are invited.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896. I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to it's efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. 'Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

The Best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Kicking themselves around the block is what people often feel like doing when they see the exquisite Laundry work on their friends Shirts, Collars, and Cuffs that has been done up by our superior methods, and realize that they have been giving their own work to an inferior washer-woman at nearly the same price we charge. Come to see us and see if we can not make it to your interest to patronize us.

Shooting Cleared up.

The trial of Richard Turner, of the Greensboro Ice and Coal Co, for the shooting, on yesterday, of Mr. Daniel Albright, occupied some time in Justice Eckle's court this morning. Mr. Turner was out hunting and the report circulated late yesterday afternoon put him in a bad light, doing him a great injustice. An explanation this morning satisfied Mr. Albright that the shooting was accidental and he withdrew the warrant. Mr. Albright was not badly hurt, being hit by only two or three shot in the back of the neck.

The Receptions Last Night.

The receptions tendered the Fresbyterian and Baptist young ladies of the Normal College last night by the congragations of the First Presbyterian and Baptist churches, were great social events. Large numbers of the Normal young ladies were present at both places and they were royally entertained. At the First Presbyterian church cream and cake were served in a most charming manner and the recitations and songs of little Miss Helen Elliott were greatly enjoyed by those at the Hall.
